BBC Scotlandshire has uncovered a high level plot by a powerful cult to sublimely shape the future direction of the United Kingdom. Over the last two decades, the Church of the Iron Lady has been growing silently within the corridors of power, with cult leaders secretly recruiting new members from the top echelons of the establishment.

The Church of the Iron Lady was founded in the 1980s by sycophants of Margaret Thatcher, the Conservative Prime Minister of the day. Devoted worship of Lady Thatcher started after she commissioned the free for all expenses system and delivered stonking salary increases for MPs.

Ex- Church member Jerry Hayes told BBC Scotlandshire that when he entered the Commons in 1983 MPs' salaries were inadequate at £14,510 a year.

He recalled:

"Margaret Thatcher ordered an independent review that recommended rises that would make even Jacqui Smith blush. But that would have enraged voters. So Mrs Thatcher rejected it. MPs were furious. To appease them, they were encouraged to supplement their salaries through the expenses system. Recompense would replace remuneration."

"When I was initiated the Church was for true believers, restricted to those who had been born into privilege and wealth. Greed and the accumulation of wealth for the sake of it were in the very genes of the purist lay member."

"Believers knew how to sell the trickle down message without having an attack of the giggles. "

But it all started to go wrong for the Church of the Iron Lady when the Order of the Red Rosette abandoned their fight against the Church. A series of high profile conversions took place shortly afterwards which threatened the purity of the Church's teachings.

Commenting further, Jerry Hayes told BBC Scotlandshire:

"Tony Blair, one of the first high profile con-versions, had the audacity to ask for private tuition in the Teachings of Thatcherianity. "
